

I concur with this proposal. It covers the emergency communications aspect of the Amateur Radio Service which likely would be vital in case of national emergencies and/or poor atmospheric conditions.